BRIGHT LEGAL LIGHTS.

A Right Examination Passed by Two Gentlemen From Georgia.

Messrs. Edgar W. Watkins of Carrollton, Ga., and J. A. Bailey of Cartersville, Ga., were admitted to practice in the district court last evening. The two gentlemen passed a splendid examination before a committee composed of Attorneys Cunningham, Huston and Shurtell. This examination was the first under the new rule adopted by the court, and Judge Dale curtailed the examination, being satisfied with the legal knowledge displayed by the two gentlemen. In fact, the court complimented the young men in high terms on their work. The new rule of the court requiring stringent examination of applicants is a good one and will tend to prevent shysters from "practicing" in the territory.

Mr. Bailey is an excellent young man and has decided to east his lot in Guthrie. He came here recently from Georgia, where he was identified with a number of important suits, and promises to make his mark in Oklahoma.

Mr. Watkins is also a progressive Southern gentleman. He is a graduate of the Georgia law university and was attorney for several big corporations, besides circuit court attorney at Carrollton.

Politically, Mr. Watkins is a strong Democrat, and as president of the Young Men's Democratic League of Western Georgia did much toward rolling up handsome majorities in the last campaign. He will locate at Perry.

Both Messrs. Bailey and Watkins are genial young men and THE LEADER wishes them unbounded success in this country.

PUNY PENTECOST.

"Anson's" Arr's Asinuity Aggravating to Alia Aywood's Aborigines.

There was a "show" in town last night. As usual, it was advertised in a half-way manner; and, as usual, there was a very fair audience present to see and be bored. Not that the show bored them particularly, that wasn't so bad, but the management of the Guthrie opera house makes the ordinary mortal awfully tired, and last night, whenever "Anson's" Arry pranced through the house into the stage doors to give "instructions," the audience, in great numbers, had to go out, immediately after the next act to rest, and get something to take the dark brown taste out of their mouths. The entertainment was that of Alia Heywood and his assistants, and a good deal of it deserves favorable mention. Heywood's play is the old "Tale of Two Cities," revised to suit the leading man's peculiar genius. Heywood has a reputation as being a relative of Sol Smith Russell, and uses the cast-off literature of that actor for advertising his company. He is an impudent and factitious one thing to make his repertoire complete. He should stay a few days in Guthrie and catch on to Billygoat Pentecost, and then, if he could guarantee an imitation of Anson's Arry leading the band he could fill the house at his own price.

Aside from Heywood, Miss Watcott deserves kindly mention for her excellent singing, and her stage appearance very pleasing. The serpentine dance, rendered by Miss Crawford, evidently being new to many of the audience, was appreciated.

A PROSPEROUS CHURCH.

The First Presbyterian Church Becomes Self-Supporting.

The First Presbyterian congregation of this city took a step in the right direction Sunday when by a unanimous vote they decided to become self-supporting and in the future ask no aid from the mission board. After a stirring sermon by Rev. F. W. Hawley of Oklahoma City over a thousand dollars were subscribed toward pastors' salary in twenty minutes and it is expected to increase this amount to $1,500 within the next week.

Regular services will be held at the church each Sunday after this, the pulpit being supplied by good ministers during the time intervening before the calling of a regular pastor.

Guthrie church is the first Presbyterian church and the second or third church of any denomination in the territory to become self-sustaining and the members are to be commended for their zeal and liberality.

Circulating Money.

A stranger standing on the platform yesterday afternoon was the cause of a ripple of excitement among the crowd. The stranger in question had a roll of money in his hand, which he was counting, when a sudden gust of wind lifted the "medium" out of his hands. Bills of $5 and $10 denomination blew along the platform and were chased by a motley crowd. Happily, and much to the credit of the people, every bill was picked up and returned to the careless stranger.

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS.

The Happenings of a Day Faithfully Chronicled.

J. W. McNeal is in Chicago. Peyton's circus has struck town. Will Reeves is taking in the fair. Baker Malone is over from Chandler. Will Suttle drove to Perry yesterday.

A merry lay the wind blew yesterday. Judge Asher of Tecumseh is in the city.

A. E. Farmer is here from Nashville, Tenn.

Charles Jackson, Wichita, is in the city.

Captain Rogers was here from Perry yesterday.

The city is afflicted with two merry-go-rounds.

The horse market was dead quiet yesterday.

Governor Swineford was in Perry yesterday.

A fire department was organized in Perry yesterday.

J. O. Severns sold his race horse, Boddie, yesterday.

J. Wheeler and family left Saturday for the world's fair.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vass, Sunday night, a boy.

Hon. R. J. Barker of Stillwater was in the city yesterday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cherry, Saturday night, a girl.

C. J. Wrightman, attorney of Q county, was here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerson have returned from Oklahoma City.

A St. Louis syndicate is arranging to build a distillery at Ponca.

Attorney Stone attended United States court at Kingfisher yesterday.

Miss Oldham has accepted a situation in the popular Johnson Bros. "Rush."

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hoffman, of Chandler, were visitors to the city yesterday.

Don't fail to attend the geographical social at the university building Monday night.

T. G. Risley will probably orate in Ohio and Iowa this fall in behalf of the Republicans.

In police court yesterday a man giving his name as McNeal, was fined $10.15 for a plain drunk.

The New York Life Insurance company filed an amended charter yesterday in the secretary's office.

Howard Ditter accidentally shot himself in the hand Sunday night while monkeying with a revolver.

Miss Katie Dooley is at her accustomed place, in Johnson Bros' store, after an extended visit in Illinois.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will have a special meeting of importance at 3 o'clock sharp to day.

Study your geography before going to the geographical social Wednesday night at Oklahoma university building.

An excellent statement of the Guthrie National bank is presented this morning. This bank is as solid as a wall.

Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton have adopted a 5-year-old child from Denver. The child's mother died a few weeks since.

George Russ, the genial mascot of the police court, shipped a quantity of lumber to Orlando yesterday with which to build a nest dwelling on his claim.

A number of government prisoners were brought to the city last night from Cross. They are charged with selling whiskey without the necessary license.

A. J. Spengel returned from the world's fair Sunday evening. He was accompanied by Mrs. Spengel, who has spent the summer with friends in the East.

The orchards of Pottawatomie county are bringing the owners good returns this year. The apple crop was good and is bringing a big price, $1.50 per bushel.

A house was blown down by the wind at Perry yesterday. The inmates were Mrs. A. L. Woodward and Miss Maggie Henderson, who were seriously injured.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist church will give a geographical social at the Oklahoma university building on Wednesday evening. Refreshments served. Everybody invited.

He could not learn his lessons, so the teacher promoted him back to the first reader," remarked a little girl yesterday of a school mate who had failed to meet the requirements of the teacher.

Colonel W. C. Jones, who left here yesterday for his home in Iowa, has been offered the U. S. marshalship of the District of Columbia and will probably accept. The duties of the office are more in the line of secret service political work than in arresting criminals, etc., and Mr. Jones would be eminently fitted for it. His appointment would leave the field free for the appointment of a good democrat of Central Kansas as U. S. marshal of Kansas, a position Mr. Jones has been seeking.

Vacation for the Petit Jury.

In the district court Saturday the petit jury was discharged until Tuesday morning. Monday in court will be given up to filing and hearing motions of attorneys.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

Judge Lawrence Makes Several Hearts Happy in a Jiffy.

Hugh Sharp and Miss Eliza Ironton of Orlando were united in matrimonial bonds yesterday by Probate Judge Lawrence. Dennis McLean and Ida Throckmorton were also spliced by Judge Lawrence.

Marriage licenses were granted to the following parties:

James W. Ashman and Miss Laura E. Wright of Woodland.

Wm. Lowe and Miss Bertha E. Potter of Springer township.

Dennis Fitzpatrick, colored, and Miss Bell Driver, city.

Judge Lawrence yesterday granted a divorce to Samuel Zerbe from his wife, Phoebe A. Zerbe.

EXAMINATIONS REQUIRED.

Applicants for Admission to the Bar Must Know Law.

Yesterday in the district court the time was given up to hearing motions, demurrers, etc.

The new rule governing the admission of attorneys to practice at the territorial bar is now strictly enforced and applications are required of all applicants. Judge Dale says certificates will not hold good hereafter, and only the passing of a rigid examination will give attorneys a look into the inside. This new rule will probably cause a more liberal holding of statutes in this territory.

WANTS HIS WIFE.

Douglas Lyons Sues for the Possession of His Frigid and $1,000.

In Judge Lawrence's court yesterday Douglas H. Lyons instituted suit for $1,000 damages against A. J. Denton, W. Saunders, and Amanda Nealis, all of Seward. In his petition Lyons alleges that the defendants enticed his wife from home and are now harboring her much to his discomfort and peace of mind. He further alleges that the defendants will not permit his wife to return to him. Aside from his suit for damage he wants an injunction against the defendants to enjoin them from keeping Mrs. Lyons.

GOVERNOR ON A JAUNT.

The Chief Executive on a Visit to the New Strip Town.

Governor Renfrow left yesterday afternoon for Enid—North and South. He will examine the new towns and see what progress the new appointees are making. From the Enids he will go to Round Creek, and very probably take in Woodward before returning home on Thursday evening. The governor has been so rushed with his gubernatorial duties of late that he could find no time in which to visit the strip cities. The present trip will serve as recreation to a great extent.

SPECIAL AGENTS.

Secretary Hoke Smith Will Have Opening Trans Investigator.

A Washington dispatch says: Secretary Smith has sent two special agents to examine into booth, land office and other frauds reported to have been committed in the Cherokee strip opening. They go under strict orders to let no guilty man escape and to report in detail in sixty days.

These agents will also investigate and bring to light the frauds attending the opening of old Oklahoma.

CHEWED BY A DOG.

A Woman's Horrible Experience Near Seward.

Near Seward, yesterday, a lady, whose name could not be learned, was attacked by a ferocious dog and received injuries which may prove fatal. She was going out to a barn when the canine pounced upon her, catching her by the throat and mutilating her in a horrible manner. The dog was killed.

Two More Arrests.

Two men, charged with being implicated in the murder of old man Klose, on Black Bear, were brought to the city last night and lodged in jail.

Three Hundred Cases.

In the district court yesterday 300 cases were set for trial. The day was given up to hearing motions and demurrers.
